

European Research Institute in Social Work (ERIS)

Research / dissertation project
Name: Lucie Cieniková e-mail: lucie.cienikova@osu.cz	University of Ostrava PhD project
Subject / title of the project The development of social care for delinquent youth in the Czech Republic in the 19th and 20th century.
Scientific importance Enrichment and extension of the findings about the studied topic will be a great asset for the practice and field as such in the social work.
Practical relevance Acquired findings will serve to a completion of the blind spaces on the map of understanding of the history in social care and social work covering the area of the Czech Republic.
Main thesis Description of development of social care for delinquent youth existing in the Czech Republic in the 19th and 20th century. Identification subjects which provided this kind of care and at the same time to trace back whether the methods of social work were applied while working with respective focus group.
Research methodology Research strategy – qualitative research strategy. Research method – historical research. Research technique – content analysis. Research subject – archival documents. Gathering of data – in the archives of the cities Praha, Brno and Opava.
Key words history of social care, delinquent youth, historical research, content analysis
Most relevant literature PIERSON, J. Understanding social work: history and context. Maidenhead: Open University Press, 2011. DANTO, E. A. Historical Research. Pocket guides to social work research methods. New York: Oxford University Press, 2008. HROCH, M. Úvod do studia dějepisu. Praha: Státní pedagogické nakladatelství, 1985. Archival documents relevant to the aim of the dissertation
Key finding (if already existing)	