I have often thought about moving from my country town to a big city like London. Life in a country town is quiet and I've always found the bright lights and crowded streets of a city very exciting. However, after a recent visit to London to do some Christmas shopping and see the Christmas lights, I was very happy to get back home!

There are more people in London than ever before! It was crowded everywhere I went. The streets, the pavements, the shops, the caf  s and the Underground. Everyone was trying to get somewhere quickly.

I travelled to London by train and the train was so full that I had to stand for the whole journey. Then I wanted to go on the Underground. That was a big mistake! There were hundreds of people on the platform and when the train arrived it was full! But the people on the platform just pushed and pushed and got into the train! I didn't. I went back into the street and walked to Oxford Street. It was raining and freezing cold but it was better than the crowded Underground.

After an expensive coffee I did my shopping. Well, I tried to do my shopping. There were so many people on the pavements I had to walk in the road and everyone was in a hurry. They were pushing and knocking each other with their bags. No one talked or smiled. Then, of course, it was time to go home! My feet were hurting and it was raining again so I decided not to walk. I got a taxi but it took forty-five minutes because there was so much traffic. I can't remember the train journey home. I slept.

Now I know why I live in the country. Life may not be as exciting or as fast as in the city, but there's more room on our buses and in our shops, and the people talk to you. But the Christmas lights in London were beautiful!
