Dušan Foltýn studied the oboe at the Ostrava Conservatoire and graduated from the Academy of performing Arts in Prague. He is the laureate of many national and international competitions (f.e. Concertino Praga - 2nd Prize, Conservatoire's Competition Display – 1st Prize, Prague Spring International Competition - 2nd Prize). At the present time he is the principal oboist of the Janáček Philharmonic Orchestra Ostrava and he is the head of the Department of Wind Instruments at the Faculty of Fine Arts of the University of Ostrava. There organizes an international oboe workshop together with world leading oboists (R. Killmer – USA, O. Zoboli – Switzerland, N. A. King – USA, N. Daniel – England, D. Walter – France). Dušan Foltýn is a member of the wind quintet Musica per cinque with which he became a finalist at the International Competition of Wind Quintets in Belgrade (Serbia) in 1987. He receives regular invitations as a jury member in both national and international competitions (f.e. Concertino Praga, Prague Spring International Competition).
