

Department of Dermatology, University Hospital Ostrava

TRAINING POSSIBILITIES

Type of course: seminar, practice, bedside teaching

Aim: training students how to reach a diagnosis and relevant differential diagnoses using clinical examination, studying the pathogenesis of dermatologic conditions. Setting the treatment plan.

The Training Program Curriculum

1. Fundamentals of Clinical Practice in Dermatology

- Communication
- Taking history
- Patient examination
- Clinical decisions and diagnoses
- Treatment management plans

2. Specialised Content Topic Areas

- Eczema – dermatitis
- Psoriasis vulgaris
- Skin infections
- Benign skin tumors
- Premalignant and malignant skin lesions
- STI – Sexually transmitted infections

3. Procedures

- Biopsy
- Curettage
- Incision, drainage
- Excision
- Nail surgery

4. Physical Therapies

- Phototherapy
- Cryotherapy
- Electrosurgery
- Iontophoresis
- Complete decongestive therapy of lymphedema (including manual drainage, device assisted drainage, compression)

Length of training: 1 week

Content of training: the training can be modified according to the needs of trainee

Contact person:

Jana Nováková, MD.

Department of Dermatology

University Hospital Ostrava

jana.novakova@fno.cz