

Department of Rehabilitation and Physical Medicine, University Hospital Ostrava

TRAINING POSSIBILITIES

Target group: Physiotherapists and Occupational therapists

Content of training:

- 5-day theoretical and practical training based on key topics in RPM
- The aim of the course is to give the general overview of RPM and its clinical application
- The curriculum consists from theoretical and practical seminars incl. interactive parts as diagnostics, therapeutic approaches, and clinical case presentation.
- Practical demonstration of physical therapy and occupational therapy as well as multidisciplinary approach at the inpatient or outpatient ward.

Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation course curriculum Daily from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.
	8 a.m. – 11,30 a.m.	12,30 p.m. – 2 p.m.
DAY 1	General introduction to RPM, Neurological rehabilitation, Introduction to the system of rehabilitation	Case presentation, demonstration of therapy
DAY 2	Inpatient rehabilitation unit - Posturography, Armeo Spring, Balance Therainer Balo – diagnostics and therapy	Case presentation, demonstration of therapy
DAY 3	Spinal cord unit - rehabilitation team work	Case presentation, demonstration of therapy
DAY 4	Intensive care unit physiotherapy, case presentation, demonstration of therapy	Pediatric rehabilitation
DAY 5	Occupational therapy, work performance assesment	Discussion of cases
Note	Adjusting the content of the training according to the specific situation or according to the needs and interests of trainee is possible.

Length of training: 1 week

Content of training: the training can be modified according to the needs of trainee

Contact person:

Contact person: Zdeněk Guřan, MSc.

Department of Rehabilitation and Physical Medicine

University Hospital Ostrava

zdenek.guran@fno.cz