Computer science is the study of the theory, experimentation, and engineering that form the basis for the design and use of computers. It is the scientific and practical approach to computation and its applications and the systematic study of the feasibility, structure, expression, and mechanization of the methodical procedures (or algorithms) that underlie the acquisition, representation, processing, storage, communication of, and access to information. Information science and education is to mediate new findings and approaches of experts in the field of ICT application not only in Education.

TOPICS

- Computer science
- Information systems
- Computer graphics, Image Processing, Computer Vision
- Information technology
- Web Ontologies, Deductions, OWL
- Adaptive E-learning
- Didactic principles of ICT supported instruction
- Learning applications, eLearning and examination with the use of ICT
- Computer based instruction in natural, technical and social sciences
- Virtual learning environment
- Computer networks
- Databases and databases systems
- Information and knowledge management

Best selected papers from ISCSIT 2017 will be invited to be extended and subsequently sent for reviews and publishing for special issue in the following journals:

- International Journal of Information and Communication Technologies in Education (ICTE)
- Journal of Numerical Analysis, Industrial and Applied Mathematics (JNAIAM)
- Journal of Mathematical Chemistry (Springer)
- Journal of Computational Methods in Sciences and Engineering (JCMSE)
- Applied Mathematics & Information Sciences (AMIS)

DATES

Papers in the form of extended abstracts max.4 pages after the template send to the email martin.kotyrba@osu.cz
Paper submission deadline 28th February 2017

FEES

We note that our policy for the publication of more than one papers is the following:
For one paper: 300 EUR / For two papers: 450 EUR
