² The deadline for submitting the final thesis can be postponed based on the student's request. The student sends the request via the student e-mail to their supervisor, who discusses the request with the head of the department and determines a new date. When setting a new submission deadline for the final thesis, it must be guaranteed that the assessments will be drawn up and entered into the Dipl2 system within the required period.

³ For combined and two-field bachelor studies and for teacher study programs, the departments will list at least two dates between 13 May and 10 June 2024, the interval between the dates must not be shorter than 10 days.

⁴ In the event that the student chooses in the term advertised between 13 June and 30 June 2024, the faculty does not guarantee the issuance of a diploma (and thus the possibility of participating in graduation ceremonies) in the summer term.

⁵ In justified cases, the student can arrange an individual internship date with the internship guarantor.
